VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

Ushers Needed for Rarig Theater Production Medea by Euripides

The University of Minnesota's Rarig Theater presents theatrical performances and dances by University students as training for their degree programs. Medea is an epic tragedy by Euripides. Ancient Greece was challenged by fundamental questions of choice, access, power, and privilege. Medea offers an opportunity to hold the mirror of the past and examine our current circumstances in America. This timeless tale challenges our understanding, morals, and capacity for empathy when those choices impact us personally.

Dates, times, and locations:

All performances are in the Kilburn Thrust Theater, Rarig Center - 330 21st Ave S, Minneapolis, MN 55455.

All ushers are to arrive one hour prior to the performance for their assignment and instructions. The following performances schedule reflects volunteer arrival times.
