

Lynn Anderson and Craig Swan

Overview from The New York Times

How to Dig Up Family History Online, by J.D. Biersdorfer , New York Times, June 24, 2020

<https://www.nytimes.com/2020/06/24/technology/personaltech/family-history-genealogy-online.html>

OnLine access to historical newspapers

Library of Congress

<https://chroniclingamerica.loc.gov/>

Minnesota Digital Newspaper Hub

<https://www.mnhs.org/newspapers/hub>

This site from the Purdue University Library contains links to free historic newspaper by state

<https://guides.lib.purdue.edu/digitalUSnewspapers>

newspapers.com

Claims to be the largest on-line Newspaper Archive
Subscription based. There is an initial seven day free trial
Can be a stand along subscription or through ancestry.com at reduced price

On line genealogy sites

ancestry.com limited free options, otherwise subscription based

familysearch.com free but appears to have somewhat fewer documents than ancestry

myheritage.com subscription based with initial 14 day free trial

Genealogy programs for your computer

Review of 10 genealogy software programs for your computer

Best family tree software by Joseph Preece, January 30, 2020

<https://www.toptenreviews.com/best-genealogy-software>